Uniform
Buying Guide

Revised 4/20/2011

This buying guide has been designed by our outpost to help parents purchase the correct uniform, patches, and accessories for their son. We do not purchase the uniforms for you. You must contact Gospel Publishing directly (see below). The total cost for purchasing a uniform with the proper patches will be approximately $100. To help reduce the initial cost we suggest that you purchase the pants and vest at a later date. In the interim let your son use blue jeans until you purchase the tactical pants. Use the size chart to determine correct uniform sizes for your son and reference your son's handbook to determine proper patch placement. If you have any questions, please ask any commander.
